Createspace, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The small town of Crowbar is thrown into chaos by a seductive, beautiful woman and her philanderous fiance who have come to steal Cricket and Cornshuck s wealth believed to have been accumulated during the gold findings of the late 1820 s. With a twinkle in her eye and soft, insinuating remarks, Ms. Jessie Lee Oakwood takes the bachelor population for a head over heels spin. Smitten by her beauty, the men make complete idiots of themselves and the sound of wedding bells are loud in their ears as they vie for this Charleston beauty. Standing in the shadows of the background and watching intently, sheriff J.B. Hobbs carefully surveys the situation and makes his own plans. It looks like Ms. Jessie Lee and her fiance have triumphed in the greatest flim-flam of Crowbar s history, but then sheriff J.B. steps out from the shadows and makes his move.
