

In the Words of Theodore Roosevelt: Quotations from the Man in the Arena (Hardback)

By Theodore Roosevelt

Cornell University Press, United States, 2012. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. We cannot do great deeds unless we are willing to do the small things that make up the sum of greatness. on Action The American people are good-natured to the point of lax indifference; but once roused, they act with the most straightforward and practical resolution. on America Speak softly and carry a big stick you will go far. If a man continually blusters, if he lacks civility, a big stick will not save him from trouble; and neither will speaking softly avail, if back of the softness there does not lie strength, power. on the Big Stick We are, as a whole, still in that low state of civilization where we do not understand that it is also vandalism wantonly to destroy or to permit the destruction of what is beautiful in nature, whether it be a cliff, a forest, or a species of mammal or bird. Here in the United States we turn our rivers and streams into sewers and dumping-grounds, we pollute the air, we destroy forests, and exterminate fishes, birds and mammals not to speak of...
