Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Report on the Organization of a High School for Girls, and Seminary for Female Teachers, 1840 One examination should be held each half year at the close of the term. Half yearly examinations have several advantages; - they tend to diminish the disposition on the part of pupils in the public schools, to apply for admission into the High School before they are duly prepared; to diminish the bad effects of erroneous decisions in regard to the claims of candidates for admission; and to make the exchange of pupils from class to class, in the school, more easy. With a further view to correct errors in admitting pupils not properly qualified, I would propose that for the first six months, those admitted, should be on probation; the parents to withdraw them, if found deficient in preparation or in maturity of mind, and their places to be returned to them, if desired, in the public school from which they came. The details of the manner and time of conducting these examinations, and the notices of their...
