Good News Publishers, United States, 2003. Pamphlet. Book Condition: New. 137 x 89 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. There s nothing like the freedom of the open road. . . . No stuffy office cubicle, no piles of paperwork, no supervisor looking over your shoulder every five minutes. Out on the road, you re free--free to make your own choices and to be yourself. Of course, some days the road is a little too long. You miss your loved ones. Traffic gets heavy or the weather gets rough. Your rig breaks down. You finally get going again, only to see the empty miles stretching out before you like an eternity. The loneliness can be overwhelming--not to mention the temptation. At times like this, you wish you had a friend, someone to share the journey. Someone to keep you company--and on the right track. Someone to be there, not just for a short stretch, but for the long haul. The Bible tells us there is Someone who wants to share life s journey with us. God understands our longings; He knows our deepest needs. He created us for companionship. He designed us to find our deepest fulfillment in a personal relationship with Him. But every one of us has rebelled against God and tried to live life on our own terms. We ve disobeyed the rules of the road. We ve rejected God s road map, ignored His directions, and chosen to go our own way (Isaiah 53:6). The Bible calls this sin --and it carries a stiff penalty: eternal separation from God. There is a way that seems right to a man, but in the end it leads to death (Proverbs 16:25). God, in His loving-kindness, couldn t bear to see us destroy ourselves. He didn t want...
