Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Manuscripts of the Duke of Hamilton, K. T The documents referred to in this Report form only a portion, and that, perhaps, the least interesting portion of the large and valuable collection of papers in Hamilton Palace. The historical treasures preserved there were so far made known in 1817 by a descriptive catalogue of them, which in that year was printed by the Maitland Club, as Vol. IV., Part I., of their Miscellany. The catalogue in question became the property of Mr. George Chalmers, author of Caledonia, and at the sale of his library, after his death, it was purchased on behalf of the Maitland Club. Their print of it was edited by Mr. Joseph Robertson, then editor of the Glasgow Constitutional. That catalogue, besides brief notices of some of the papers now reported on, refers to a very extensive and valuable series of Royal letters, and State and official correspondence addressed to or connected with the members of the family of Hamilton, from the time of King James V. and the Regent Arran until after the union of England and Scotland. That correspondence, however, is not included in this Report, which is devoted more especially to the charter muniments of the family of Hamilton, showing their rise in Scotland, their increase of territory, and their royal alliance, which at one period made them nearest heirs to the Crown. A numerous series of bonds of manrent granted by some of the most powerful barons of Scotland are also given, not only as interesting in themselves, but as indicative of the manner in which the influence of a powerful nobleman was then courted and maintained. Several...
